

2019 Peal Report

There were sixteen peals rung for the TDGR during 2019 rung at fourteen different locations. This is an increase on 2018 (12), however significantly more were rung for the TDGR in John Pladdy's summer peal week than in previous years

The peals were rung by 17 resident members augmented by a further 23 from outside the Guild. John Pladdys was the leading ringer for the Guild with 9, all of which he conducted.

There were no first peals or first of conductor in 2019.

There were a further 7 peals rung in Cornwall by visiting bands in 2019.

Neil Hitchens and Robert Perry both conducted peals to celebrate the 50th anniversary of their first peals. By the end of 2019 Neil had rung 238 Peals at 82 different Cornish towers, whilst Robert has rung 974 at 119 different Cornish towers.

Another milestone was passed in 2019 with the 2,500th Peal for the Guild.
